A fretboard diagram for a six-string guitar. The first string (high E) is shown with a bend mark at the 19th fret. The bend is indicated by a horizontal line connecting the 19th and 12th fret positions. The 19th fret is explicitly labeled with the number '19'. The 12th fret is also marked with a small circle. The 1st string has a thicker line than the others. The neck is oriented vertically, and the headstock is at the top right.
